

Winne-the-Pooh and the bees

Winne the Pooh lived in the forest

One day he was walking and saw bees.

He climbed the tree to get the bees honey.

The bees stung him and he fell.

He fell in sticker bushes. That hurt.

He asked Cristopher Robin for help getting the honey

Christopher Robin blew up a blue balloon.

Pooh floated amongst the bees still wanting the honey.

The bees popped the balloon and poor Pooh fell again. He went home with no honey.
